

MICRO-CREDENTIALS TRAINING CALENDAR

In today's rapidly changing professional landscape, staying competitive means continuously upgrading your skills. This Micro-Credentials Training Calendar offers a curated selection of short, flexible, and industry-relevant programmes designed to deliver immediate value to your career or organisation. Developed with academic rigor and aligned to current market needs, our micro-credentials empower students to gain practical, verifiable competencies in high-demand areas—without the long-term commitment of traditional qualifications.

Several of these micro-credentials are eligible for Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points, adding further value for professionals seeking formal recognition for their learning. Whether you're looking to upskill, reskill, or gain a competitive edge, this calendar is your gateway to accessible, impactful learning opportunities that deliver real world results.
